SQL View Questions

1. Create a view that shows employee names and their managers' names.

2. Create a view showing the total sales made by each employee.

3. Create a view displaying the list of customers and the total amount of their orders.

4. Create a view showing product names and their sales total.

5. Create a view that shows the sales made by employees for each product.

6. Create a view showing employees who do not have a manager.

7. Create a view displaying orders made by customers along with the products they ordered.

8. Create a view that shows the total amount of sales per product.

9. Create a view that displays all employees with more than one manager.

10. Create a view showing the orders where the amount is greater than the average order amount.

11. Create a view displaying the names of customers who have not made any orders.

12. Create a view showing the top 3 products with the highest sales amounts.

13. Create a view showing all employees who haven't made any sales.

14. Create a view that shows the highest sale made by each employee.

15. Create a view showing customers and their most expensive order.